Your destination – SIEM REAP, CAMBODIA

Siem Reap is the capital city of Siem Reap Province in northwestern Cambodia, and a popular resort town as the gateway to Angkor region.

Siem Reap has colonial and Chinese-style architecture in the Old French Quarter, and around the Old Market. In the city, there are museums, traditional Apsara dance performances, a Cambodian cultural village, souvenir and handcraft shops, silk farms, rice-paddies in the countryside, fishing villages and a bird sanctuary near the Tonle Sap Lake.

Siem Reap today—being a popular tourist destination—has a large number of hotels, resorts, restaurants and businesses closely related to tourism. This is much owed to its proximity to the Angkor temples, the most popular tourist attraction in Cambodia.

Day 3: Team Building “Amazing race” and visit Tonle Sap lake

MAIN OBJECTIVE:

Team building programs are designed to develop leadership skill, drive employment satisfaction, improve productivity and motivation, improve your team performance and promote the benefits of flexibility and adaptability. Through these specific activities and exercises, participants will encourage communication and trustworthiness; improve teamwork skills and foster better employer relationship.

ACTIVITY: Amazing Race in Siem Reap

This activity gets you out into the heart of the Siem Reap town. This program's aim is to enable the corporate clients not only to foster communication and team building but also to discover in a more exciting and amusing way the magnificent area of Siem Reap. Each checkpoint is designed to learn about Cambodian culture, get in touch with local people and solve different tasks.

Each group will be fully equipped with camera, a city Map, a detailed road book with instructions, some amount of local currency and a local guide (more challenging without a guide). Tuk Tuk will be used as means of transportation during activities.

Description:

The activity starts with a short briefing and introduction in your hotel meeting room/room/public space depending on the availability.

The group will depart by Remoak known as Tuk Tuk (10 or 11 pax per team, 4 pax per tuk tuk) in REVERSED directions to the Buddhist temples.

CHECKPOINT LOCA BUDDHIST TEMPLES – MONK BLESSING

Before entering the local market, you have to look for a secret local pagoda to get blessed for your travel with a spiritual monk blessing ceremony, a Khmer traditional ritual, good to do to begin your trip in Cambodia, when you are blessed with success and prosperity.

During the blessing, there will be a clue flying through you within the water/ flower petal make sure you are catch it and read it for your next challenge.

After the monk blessing, start the challenge according the assignment.

CHECKPOINT LOCAL MARKET - NEGOTIATION SKILLS

Clients are provided with a shopping list in Cambodian language and an appropriate amount of local currency. In a given time (e.g. 20 minutes) the group has to find out what to buy (because items are in Cambodian language) and then buy it for the cheapest price.

Checkpoint COOKING CLASS - Spring Roll Competition

The aim of Ecole Paul Dubrule (subject to the school schedule, alternative will be secured) is to prepare its students for a dynamic career in the hospitality and tourism industry by providing an appropriate curriculum, adapted to international standards, under the watchful tutelage of trained hotellery / restauration / culinary / hospitality professionals.

In this very interesting school students will explain to groups how to prepare typical local Khmer dish /Amok. After a short introduction each team has to prove their proficiency in spring roll making. In a given time (e.g. 20 +++ minutes) team members have to produce as much spring rolls as they can.

After the cook complete the judge from the profession school cheff will score your dishes.

Note: Enjoy your dish (not a complete lunch just a tasting and exchange with other team)!

After team building, enjoy lunch at a local restaurant including a soft drink or a mineral water

In the afternoon, continue to drive to the famous Tonle Sap, the largest fresh water lake in Southeast Asia. You will then take a memorable boat cruise to a nearby floating village and get a glimpse of the everyday life of the local people who dwell in floating shacks. For most of the year the lake is fairly small, approximately only one metre deep with an area of 2,700 square km.

However, during the monsoon season, the water is pushed up from the Mekong River into the lake, resulting in an increased area of 16,000 square km and a depth of up to nine metres, ultimately flooding nearby fields and forests. The floodplain provides a perfect breeding ground for fish. The livelihood of most of the local community depends largely on fishing and Tonle Sap accounts for 75 percent of Cambodia's annual inland fish catch. Return to the hotel later in the day.

In the evening, enjoy dinner at Café Indochine restaurant including a soft drink or a mineral water

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Accommodation: Motherhome Inn hotel/ Superior room

Day 4: full day Angkor temples
