Day 2	After the restoration of Taiwan, it was become the warehouse of Taiwan Salt Corp. It was fallen into disuse and the pagoda trees grown in there. Over half century, it formed a special scene with trees wind around the house, you can see a large banyan tree that over the years has literally swallowed an old warehouse.  - In 1624, Dutch built the first fort in Anping, Taiwan, called "Fort Zeelandia", now known as Anping Fort, where has been the administrative center of the Dutch regime, and the hub for trading. The building was originally constructed in square inner fortress and rectangle outer walls. In 1661, the fort was renamed as Anping to commemorate Cheng Cheng Kung 鄭成功 home town when he had driven the Dutch out of Taiwan. Therefore, Fort Zeelandia was also known as "King's Fort" or "Taiwan Fort", nicknamed Anping Fort. - An Ping Old street: It was the first street built by Dutch in Tainan about 300 years ago. Most historic residences on Anping Old Street would hang a different Sword Lions on its door frame or the walls. The shields on the wall were carved with lion face and there is a sword in the place near lion's mouth. It appears from distance that the lion was biting a sword.   	HTL	Tainan City Restaurant 12:30–13:30	City Restaurant 18:30-19:30	台南老爺行旅或同級 Tainan The Place Tainan or Simiar
